For questions or additional information, contact Shirley Schafer (727- 809-0454) or Jean Alderman (727-233-2475).

Please read the section below and sign the application. Upon acceptance, you will receive a letter of confirmation along with general directions to the location. Space numbers will be assigned when you arrive on the morning of the show.

1. Vendors may arrive starting at 6:30 a.m., but must be set-up and clear vehicles from the roadway by 8:30 a.m.
2. Outside vendors must provide their own tent. Weights may be used to secure tents.
3. Vendors are responsible for all unloading, loading and transporting. Please be courteous - unload promptly and move vehicles to allow other vendors access to unload. After unloading, please park vehicles in designated parking areas.
4. Complimentary coffee will be available in Fellowship Hall. Please wear the vendor badge included in your packet when you come for coffee.
5. Food and beverage will be available, and we will be more than happy to have our “gophers” go get lunch for you at our food court and bring it back to you or sit at your booth while you take a break, if you prefer.
6. All Vendors are to remain open until the close of the Craft Fair.
7. Upon leaving at the end of the day, we ask that you clean your area and take all material with you.
8. For questions regarding the craft show, please call only the number listed above.
9. Please fill out the evaluation sheet (in packet) and give it to one of our members before leaving.
10. All areas of our show are non-smoking, including outdoor vendor spaces.
11. There are absolutely NO REFUNDS. All checks will be deposited on receipt into a bank holding account. The expense of any check that does not clear will be borne by the issuer.
